

GARY L. TRUJILLO TO BE INDUCTED TO THE HISPANIC SCHOLARSHIP FUND ALUMNI HALL OF FAME

The Harvard Business School Latino Alumni Association is proud to announce that Gary L. Trujillo (MBA 1990) will be inducted into the Hispanic Scholarship Fund (HSF) Alumni Hall of Fame in a ceremony to take place October 24th at the Plaza Hotel in New York City.

Gary is the co-founder of Garcia Trujillo – a merchant bank that serves U.S. and Latin American companies seeking to grow their share in the global Hispanic market. He is also a founding member of the HBS Latino Alumni Association and currently serves as Chairman of the Board. Residing in Phoenix, AZ Gary has been a tireless advocate for Latino youth and education through his Be A Leader Foundation (www.bealeaderfoundation.org).

Gary is the fifth HBS Latino alumni to be inducted in the HSF Alumni Hall of Fame after Lisa M. Quiroz (MBA 1990) in 2002, Martin R. Curiel (MBA 2004) in 2005, Gabriel J. Esparza (MBA 2000) in 2006, and Luis A. Ubinas (MBA 1989) in 2008. Lisa is also a member of the board of HSF, along with Fidel A. Vargas (MBA 1999).

About the Harvard Business School Latino Alumni Association:

The Harvard Business School Latino Alumni Association (HBSLAA) is the premier Latino alumni association of graduate MBA programs in the United States. Founded in 2004, its mission is to strengthen the HBS Latino community through educational, networking, and social opportunities that promote career advancement, build lasting relationships and foster dialogue on issues relevant to the Latino Community. For more information contact Co-Presidents Tom Cervantez (MBA 1991) at tcervantez@mba1991.hbs.edu or Alec Detwiler (MBA 2008) at adetwiler@mba2008.hbs.edu.

About the Hispanic Scholarship Fund:

Founded in 1975, the Hispanic Scholarship Fund believes that the country prospers when all Americans have access to the opportunities a college education can afford. As the nation's leading Hispanic higher education fund, HSF works to address the barriers that keep many Latinos from earning a college degree. HSF has awarded more than $330 million in scholarships over the past 36 years and has supported a broad range of outreach and education programs to help students and their families navigate collegiate life, from gaining admission and securing financial aid to finding employment after graduation. HSF envisions a future where every Latino household will have at least one college graduate, creating an enduring impact on the college outlook of Latino families nationwide, and strengthening the American economy for generations to come.
